The head office of the research department Cyber-Physical Systems (CPS) is located in the 3rd floor of the Mehrzweckhochhaus (MZH) building at Bibliothekstraße 1 in 28359 Bremen. The reception is in room 3530. Further offices including the BAALL are located in close proximity in the Cartesium at Enrique-Schmidt-Straße 5, 28359 Bremen.

By Car

From the autobahn A1 change at „Bremer Kreuz“ on the A27 in direction „Cuxhaven/Bremerhaven“. Leave the A27 at exit 19 „Horn-Lehe/Universität“. Leave the A27 at exit 19 „Horn-Lehe/Universität“. At the second intersection turn right into „Universitätsallee“, and at the next traffic light turn right again into „Enrique-Schmidt-Straße“. Use the parking lot there (parking fee € 0.70 per day).

To get to the MZH leave the parking lot in the direction Bibliothekstraße. This is the parallel street to the Enrique-Schmidt-Straße. (When you enter the parking lot by car, the Bibliothekstraße is right in front of you). In the Bibliothekstraße turn right. The MZH is the high-rise building on the right side. To get to the Cartesium, leave the parking lot back to Enrique-Schmidt-Straße; the Cartesium is the first building on the right side of Enrique-Schmidt-Straße, easily distinguished by its bright red colour.

By Train

Exit the Bremen central station in the direction south (town center). Taxi and tram are leaving directly in front of the central station. A taxi to the University of Bremen is approx. € 10. By tram, tickets about € 2,50 (can be bought in the tram): take line 6 in direction „Universität“ and exit at the station „Universität/Zentralbereich“.

The Mehrzweckhochhaus (MZH) is in immediate proximity of the tram station. Another possibility to get to the university are the bus lines 21, 28 or 32.

By Plane

A taxi to the University of Bremen from the airport is approx. 18 €. The tram line 6 goes directly from the airport to the University of Bremen. Exit at the station „Universität/Zentralbereich“; the Mehrzweckhochhaus (MZH) is in immediate proximity of the tram station.
